Department Head Welcome Statement

Welcome to the University of Tennessee and the Clarence Brown Theatre.

We hope that your experience and training here will exceed your expectations. We expect that you will find it both challenging and rewarding: challenging, in that the expectations for professional growth are high, and rewarding, in that the artistic opportunities are exciting. You are now part of the Clarence Brown Theatre, a LORT Theatre of international reputation, and your training will be tested and tempered in an atmosphere of professional accomplishment and high artistic ambition. Still, we believe that the most exciting professional theatres take on the responsibility to train and encourage the next generation of theatre artists.

We believe in our dual educational and professional mission, we believe in the distinction CBT brings to our community, we believe in the quality of our work, and we believe that your experience here will bring you closer to your aspirations. We all wish for your success and we are committed to guiding you toward it. My own door is always open. Feel free to stroll in.

Welcome here.

Calvin MacLean
Artistic Director, The Clarence Brown Theatre
Head, Department of Theatre

Introduction

Graduate School Introduction

In order to serve the mission and vision of the Graduate School and preserve the integrity of graduate programs at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, information related to the process of graduate education in each department is to be provided for all graduate students.

Based on Best Practices offered by the Council of Graduate Schools, it is important that detailed articulation of the information specific to the graduate degrees offered in each department/program be disseminated. The Department Graduate Handbook does not deviate from established Graduate School Policies noted in the Graduate Catalog, <http://catalog.utk.edu/content.php?catoid=2&navoid=27>, but rather provides the specific ways in which those policies are carried out.

Graduate students are expected to be aware of and satisfy all regulations governing their work and study at the university. Information pertaining to these matters is available at the following sites:

- Graduate Catalog (see link above)
- Hilltopics Student Handbook: <http://dos.utk.edu/hilltopics/>
- Graduate School website: <http://gradschool.utk.edu>
- Graduate School Appeals Procedure: <http://gradschool.utk.edu/GraduateCouncil/AcadPoli/appealprocedure.pdf>
- Graduate Assistant Handbook: <http://gradschool.utk.edu/GradAsstHandbook.pdf>

Department of Theatre Introduction

MFA Degree

Within concentrations in Costume Design, Scene Design, Lighting Design, and Acting, the Master of Fine Arts degree provides comprehensive training in an environment that fosters creative risk-taking and that equips graduates to compete successfully in the theatre profession of today.

LORT Theatre Company

A unique feature of the MFA degree is the presence of a resident professional theatre. The Clarence Brown Theatre (CBT) is a LORT D theatre produced by the Department of Theatre and fully integrated into its academic curriculum. Three or four of the department's eight annual subscription productions are produced on a LORT contract, allowing students the opportunity to work alongside seasoned professionals. Founded in 1974, the CBT is one of the older companies in the LORT system and has a distinguished history of hosting artists of national and international stature. MFA actors may join the Actors' Equity Association in their second or third year of study. MFA designers have opportunities to do mainstage work throughout their training.

International Initiatives

The UT Department of Theatre MFA programs feature a strong component of international exchange. Students and faculty have opportunities to interact with international artists in Knoxville or abroad. These international initiatives provide experience of diverse modes of theatrical representation and ways of working that enable actors and designers to see their work within the context of a larger world-view. The department allocates funds on a priority basis for exchange initiatives and/or graduate student travel.

General Duties and Responsibilities of Faculty, Resident Artists, and all Graduate Students

1. Faculty and Resident Artists are fully committed to the mission statement of the Dept. of Theatre.

“The mission of the Department of Theatre and the Clarence Brown Theatre Company shall be to achieve regional, national, and international distinction by:

- A. Providing quality programs of study at both the graduate and undergraduate levels.
- B. Supporting a resident professional theatre to foster professional standards of production and performance.
- C. Enriching the study and practice of theatre with projects and pursuits which facilitate national and international artistic exchange among teachers, students, and professional artists.
- D. Providing a cultural resource for both the university and the larger East Tennessee community.

The Master of Fine Arts in Theatre shall provide an educational and artistic foundation for a life of work and research in theatre.”

As stated in the Faculty Handbook, Sections 2.22 and 2.23:

Teaching

Faculty members are responsible for teaching effectively by employing useful methods and approaches that facilitate student learning. Faculty members design courses to achieve clearly defined learning objectives with appropriate evaluation tools and teaching methods. Advising undergraduate and graduate students concerning courses, curricula, and professional opportunities beyond the degree is also important. Faculty members may educate students through distance learning. Faculty members may pursue the scholarship of education, so as to improve teaching of faculty members and other educators, such as primary and secondary teachers, or extension agents. Other faculty members through outreach instruct non-traditional audiences in off-campus settings to improve professional expertise and public understanding.

Research / Scholarship / Creative Activity

Faculty members make intellectual and creative contributions through the scholarship of discovery and application, both within and across disciplines. Faculty disseminate their scholarly work through venues respected in their disciplines and beyond academia, secure funding where appropriate for their scholarly endeavors through organizations and disciplinary opportunities, and mentor undergraduate and graduate students in the research experience. Some faculty members pursue the scholarship of discovery by creating new knowledge and skills. Some faculty members pursue the scholarship of application, which typically involves outreach to the community to co-develop successful practices to address problems to benefit individuals and organizations.

All Theatre Department faculty members engage in creative activity as practicing theatre professionals or in the scholarship of theatre history/criticism/theory.

2. Graduate students are expected to be aware of and satisfy all university and departmental regulations governing their work and training.

Admission Requirements and Application Procedures

Graduate School Admission Requirements

All applicants to the MFA program must first complete all procedures and requirements for admission to the Graduate School of The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, as detailed in The Graduate Catalog: <http://catalog.utk.edu/index.php?catoid=2>. The phone number is 865-974-2475.

A Bachelor's degree is required from a college or university accredited by the appropriate regional accrediting agency. A foreign degree must be equivalent to a U.S. Bachelor's degree and must be accredited by its regional or national accreditation agency.

U.S. Degree holders must have earned a 2.7 out of a possible 4.0 GPA or a minimum of 3.0 during the senior year of undergraduate study. Foreign degree holders must have earned a minimum of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale or other equivalent to a 'B' average. If you have completed previous graduate course work, you must have a grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4-point scale or equivalent.

The Dean of the Graduate School must approve all admissions.

The application for admission is the same for both international and domestic students. However, there are deadlines and other important pieces of information for international students only in the Admission Guide for International Students and in the UT Graduate Catalog. Please read them carefully, and then proceed to the application procedures.

Department of Theatre MFA Program Admission Requirements

The MFA Program of the Department of Theatre has additional requirements for admission that must be met by prospective graduate students before they will be accepted.

Interviews with appropriate faculty are required of all applicants. Applicants for admission to MFA design programs must submit samples of their work. Auditions are required of MFA Acting applicants.

Two letters of recommendation, an application for assistantship, and a Statement of Purpose are required and should be submitted directly to the Director of Graduate Studies, Department of Theatre, 206 McClung Tower, Knoxville, TN 37996-0240.

No GRE or MAT scores are required for admission.

Admission requirement information may also be found at the Department of Theatre website: <http://theatre.utk.edu/>

Financial Support

Assistantships

All MFA candidates in the Dept. of Theatre are awarded Graduate Teaching Assistantships. These assistantships include a combined package of both a supplemental fellowship from the Theatre Department and a Graduate Teaching Assistantship from the College of Arts & Sciences, yielding a stipend of approximately $8,500/year, plus a full tuition waiver. In addition to the stipend, the assistantship provides health insurance. This is a continuing award that is not renewable for more than three years. As long as a student maintains in good standing (a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 plus consent of the faculty), assistantships remain in force. Please note that the tuition waiver does not include a waiver of certain fees (programs & services, technology, facilities, and transportation), which currently amount to approximately $600/semester (2009-10). These amounts may be adjusted slightly after final approval of budgets for any given fiscal year.

MFA students in Theatre work in a combination of areas appropriate to their discipline.

Design: Graduate students in design will generally be placed in the shop directly related to his/her area of concentration. Assistantships require an average of 16 hours work per week during the 15 weeks of each semester. Teaching assignments may be available during the second and third years of study. Stagecraft, Make-Up, and Introduction to Theatre are among the courses that have been taught by qualified graduate students in design. Teaching a course exempts the student from five hours of shop work per week. The student is responsible for working the remaining ten hours per week in the shop to which he/she has been assigned.

Students may also be credited for hours in which, at the discretion of and at the behest of the major advisor, they perform research or other duties not related to the shop.

Third year graduate students work on an as-needed basis at the discretion of the major advisor. They are exempted from the usual 16 hours-per-week work requirement.

Design Student Facilities

MFA design students each have studio space in a building dedicated just for the use of the MFA design program. This facility includes a teaching and seminar room, a state of the art computer lab with a station for each student in the MFA class, professional grade mat-cutters for model building, a refrigerator, and microwave oven.

Design Opportunities

Student in design will design a minimum of one lab theatre production and two fully supported productions during the three-year course of study. If the student's schedule permits and additional design opportunities in the department are available, design of additional productions is possible. Design outside the department is not permitted without permission in writing from the student's major advisor.

Guidelines for Graduate Assistants in the Costume Shop

Graduate Assistants assigned to the Costume Shop are required to work 16 hours-per-week. Upon entering the program and work area the assistant's skill level will be assessed and he/she will be assigned suitable tasks within the shop. As soon as possible after registration the assistant is expected to post on the Costume Shop door a class schedule that includes the hours they anticipate being in the shop each week. Additionally, local and home phone numbers as well as e-mail addresses should be posted with the schedule.

Policies concerning regular work attendance are set and enforced by the Costume Shop Supervisor. If possible, the Shop requests that students arrange their work schedules so as to be more available during heavy work times in the season (i.e. the two weeks preceding the Friday opening of a show). Scheduling conflicts should be discussed with the Costume Shop Supervisor in advance.

Assistants are required to complete their work requirements by the end of each semester. Deficiencies in work hours are discussed with the assistant and, if problems persist, referred to the Director of Graduate Studies.

Guidelines for Graduate Assistants in the Lighting Shop

Graduate Assistants assigned to the Lighting Shop are required to work from 5-16 hours-per-week, depending on the individual's agreement with the Department. Upon entering the program, the student will be assessed in his/her level of skill and assigned to suitable tasks within the shop. Assistants in the Lighting Shop will be under the supervision of the Lighting Shop Manager, the Master Electrician, and the Faculty Lighting Designer.

Policies concerning regular work attendance are set and enforced by the Lighting Shop Supervisor. A schedule of work calls is posted at the beginning of each semester and updated on a regular basis. Scheduling conflicts should be discussed with the Lighting Shop Supervisor in advance.

Assistants are expected to complete their work requirement by the end of the semester. Deficiencies in work hours are discussed with the assistant and referred to the Director of Graduate Studies if problems persist.

Guidelines for Graduate Assistants in the Scene Shop

Most Graduate Assistants assigned to the scene shop are required to work 225 hours each semester. This averages out to 16 hours-per-week while classes are in session. Your official starting date is the first day of classes. You may choose to start earlier to get ahead on your hours. At the beginning of each semester please be sure that you have provided the shop with your class schedule, your "home" phone number, your e-mail address, and any other contact numbers you may have (e.g., cell phone).

Once you have established a class scheduled you will be asked for a work schedule for the semester. Prompt and regular attendance is expected from everyone. Scheduling conflicts should be discussed with the Scene Shop Supervisor in advance. Occasionally, you may be asked to work beyond your scheduled times, for strikes, projects, etc. These times are discussed and handled individually.

Assistants are expected to complete their work requirement by the end of each semester. Deficiencies in work hours are discussed with the student and referred to the Director of Graduate Studies if problems persist.

Acting: In the MFA in Acting program, assistantship duties are discharged through a combination of the following:

1) Performing: Graduates in Acting will fulfill required rehearsal and performance responsibilities beyond regularly scheduled course hours. This most immediately affects University holidays. As employees of the University, GTA holiday schedules are not the same as that of a BA student, and GTAs are often required to remain on campus during holidays. GTA responsibilities can also occasionally affect summer employment. Professional employment is a top priority, and theatre faculty strives to foster summer employment for MFA actors in theatres around the country. However, employment with UT takes precedence over outside employment offers. On occasion, graduate students will be assigned to work in a show at UT that interferes with summer employment. Such issues will be handled on a case-by-case basis, and every effort is made to resolve conflicts in a way that affords students the best opportunity for artistic growth and a first-rate professional career.

2) Understudying may be required of graduate actors by the department, on a case-by-case basis, according to the needs of the theatre. Understudying is also assigned during the first term of first year, as part of the training. Understudying is excellent experience, and a substantial contribution to the Clarence Brown Theatre production season.

3) Front of House duties assisting the house manager and box office staff may be assigned to graduate actors by the department, including help with subscription sales, greeting and helping patrons, and attending events to enhance the Clarence Brown community.

4) Teaching: Although it is not mandatory, teaching is possible for interested Graduate students. In the second year, GTAs may begin “shadowing” faculty members who are teaching Theatre 220 (Beginning Acting) in the undergraduate program. GTAs attend the classes, and assist the faculty member as requested for one term. Upon satisfactory completion of shadowing, GTAs can teach a section of Theatre 220 in the fall or spring terms of the third year of training. Upon occasion, GTAs may be asked to substitute or teach other courses, depending upon readiness and departmental need. There are also opportunities to assist in particular courses during the third year.

5) Graders for Theatre 100: during the first year of training, GTAs may be asked to assist faculty who teach Theatre 100 (Introduction to Theatre) in grading written materials such as papers and exams for this large lecture course.

6) Special assignments: GTAs may also be given special assignments, such as assisting with Library acquisitions, scheduling, or assisting with travel arrangements for the group, etc.

In all of these duties, faculty takes care to create a balanced workload for all members of the ensemble, and not to unfairly burden any one student.

Performance Opportunities

The UT Theatre season includes: professional productions (LORT) and University productions and studio projects (University Company). MFA actors must be available for casting in all UT Theatre Department productions.

Other Forms of Financial Aid

Both the Department of Theatre and the University have other forms of financial aid available. Scholarship aid from the Department not in the form of assistantships is generally awarded to select second and third year students.

Fellowships are awards that typically require no service. Most fellowships are awarded on the basis of academic merit and/or professional potential. A list of Fellowships awarded through the Graduate School can be found at: <http://gradschool.utk.edu/fellowships.shtml>.

For loans and other forms of aid from the University, students should contact the UTK Financial Aid Office at: <http://finaid.utk.edu/>.

Outside Employment

Outside employment is generally not possible for MFA in Acting students. Exceptions may be made by the Acting Faculty on a case-by-case basis.

MFA students in Design are not permitted to hold outside jobs.

Travel Grants

MFA candidates are allotted up to $1500.00 per year for personal development. Allocation of funds is at the discretion of Department faculty and administration.

Additional funds can be requested by application to the College of Arts and Sciences and the Graduate Student Senate.

Registration and Advising

Registration must be completed online. Procedures and timelines can be found at: <http://gradschool.utk.edu/orientation/registration.shtml>.

Course Credit

To earn graduate credit, a student must be admitted by the Dean of the Graduate School and enrolled in an appropriate status as a graduate student. The registration must reflect the desire for graduate credit, and the course must have been approved by the Graduate Council. Course work taken in any other status is unacceptable for graduate credit and cannot be changed retroactively to graduate credit. Special privileges are accorded University of Tennessee seniors and professional students, as stated in the section on Undergraduates and Professional Students.

Courses numbered at the 500 level, as well as those 400-level courses approved for graduate credit, must be taught by faculty members who (1) meet the criteria of an assistant professor or above as defined in the Faculty Handbook and (2) have been designated by the department head as being appropriate. Graduate teaching associates are ineligible to teach courses approved for graduate credit, unless they are in a post-professional degree program where the terminal degree is a Master's degree and has been approved by the Graduate Council as an exception.

Consistent with the accreditation requirements of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) that graduate curricula must be substantially different from undergraduate curricula, classes at the 400 level in which both graduate and undergraduate students are enrolled must be structured so as to reflect this distinction. That is, course requirements for graduate credit will be more rigorous and will exceed expectations for undergraduates. Graduate and undergraduate completion of the same course will not be considered equivalent. Petitions for retroactive changing of undergraduate to graduate credit will not be accepted.

Course Load

The maximum load for a graduate student is 15 hours and 9-12 hours are considered a full load. All Theatre graduates hold one-fourth time assistantships. A one-fourth time graduate assistant normally should take 9-13 hours per semester. Registration for more than 15 hours during any semester is not permissible without prior approval. Refer to the Graduate Catalog for additional information: <http://catalog.utk.edu/index.php?catoid=2>

Advisor/Major Professor

Every graduate student must have an advisor from the major department. This professor advises the student about courses, supervises the student's research, and facilitates communication within the major department, to other departments and with the Dean of the Graduate School. The advisor must approve the student's program each semester. The Theatre Department assigns an advisor to each graduate student, who is the major professor in the appropriate area of concentration. The student is expected to maintain close consultation with the major professor with regard to progress in the program. Other responsibilities of the advisor/major professor are explained under individual programs.

Degree Requirements

The Master of Fine Arts in Theatre

At least 60 semester hours, 40 of which must be at the 500 level or above, are required for the Master of Fine Arts with a major in Theatre, which is normally to be completed in three consecutive years of full-time residence. Theatre 501 is required. Three additional hours at the 500 level are required from history, literature, or dramaturgy. Students in the MFA degree program are evaluated each semester by faculty on overall performance, portfolio submission (in Design), and standards of behavior. Continuation in the program is with the approval of the faculty for the appropriate concentration within the MFA degree program.

Theatre 599 (Projects in Lieu of Thesis) and an oral defense of the project must be completed satisfactorily in the third year of study before the degree is conferred. The major professor and the student together select an advisor and a committee for the Project in Lieu of Thesis.

In addition to the core requirements listed above, each area of concentration has specific requirements:

Design Concentration

Required courses are at least 12 hours of Theatre 580 (Design Seminar) and at least 6 hours in the projects courses. Theatre 503 (Elements of Design for Theatre) is required in the first year of residence.

Acting Concentration

At least 12 hours each of Theatre 520 (Master Class in Acting), Theatre 523 (Master Class in Acting: Movement), and Theatre 525 (Master Class in Acting: Voice). Coursework in this concentration is conducted in a conservatory environment.

Examinations / Evaluations

Graduate education in Theatre requires continuous evaluation of the student. This evaluation includes:

- cumulative grade-point average
- faculty evaluations of student performance and behavior each semester
- completion of a Project in Lieu of Thesis in the third year
- continuation in a program is determined by consideration of all these elements by the faculty and the head of the department.

The academic records of all graduate are reviewed at the end of each semester, including summer term. Graduate students must maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 on all graduate courses taken for a letter grade of A-F. Grades of S/NC, P/NP, and I, which have no numerical equivalent, are excluded from this computation.

The MFA Program for the Department of Theatre further requires that each student undergo a progress/portfolio evaluation which will determine whether the student will be invited to continue for the following year of the program. The faculty of the appropriate area of concentration in Acting or Design will give this evaluation and the students will be notified promptly of the results. Students should check with their major professor to determine the date of these evaluations.

The MFA Program for the Department of Theatre further requires that each student adhere to the University honor statement and maintain departmental standards of professional conduct.

Standards, Problems, and Appeals

Academic Probation

Upon completion of nine hours of graduate coursework, a graduate student will be placed on academic probation when his/her cumulative GPA falls below 3.0. A student will be allowed to continue graduate study in subsequent semesters if each semester's grade point average is 3.0 or greater. Upon achieving a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or greater, the student will be removed from probationary status. Students are also subject to academic review by their graduate faculty at any time. A formal letter stating the terms of probation will be made available.

Dismissal

If a student is on academic probation, the degree or non-degree status will be terminated by the Graduate School if the student's semester GPA falls below a 3.0 in a subsequent semester. When the particular circumstances may be deemed to justify continuation, and upon recommendation of the appropriate academic unit and approval of The Graduate School, a student on probation whose semester GPA is below a 3.0 may be allowed to continue on a semester-by-semester basis.

Dismissal of a graduate student by a department or program is accomplished by written notice to the student, with a copy to The Graduate School. In those cases where the department's requirements for continuation are more stringent than Graduate School requirements, the Graduate School will evaluate the student's records to determine whether the student is eligible to apply for a change of status and register in another area of study. Registration for courses in a department from which a student has been dismissed will not be permitted, except by written authorization from the department.

Academic Honesty

Academic integrity is a responsibility of all members of the academic community. An honor statement is included on the application for admission and readmission. The applicant's signature acknowledges that adherence is confirmed. The honor statement declares that:

“An essential feature of The University of Tennessee, Knoxville is a commitment to maintaining an atmosphere of intellectual integrity and academic honesty. As a student of The University, I pledge that I will neither knowingly give nor receive any inappropriate assistance in academic work, thus affirming my own personal commitment to honor and integrity.”

Webster's Tenth New Collegiate Dictionary [1998] defines plagiarism as “stealing or passing off ideas or words of another as one's own”; the use of a created production without crediting the source.” Any material taken from another source must be documented, and in no case should one present another person's work as one's own. Student involved in collaborative research to avoid questions of plagiarism should exercise extreme caution. If in doubt, students should check with their major professor and The Graduate School about the project. Plagiarism will be investigated when suspected and prosecuted if established.

Professional Standards

MFA students are expected to maintain high standards of professional conduct throughout their training. Any behavior or pattern of conduct that interferes with or detracts from the ability of others to make satisfactory progress towards their degree, or from the professional function of the department or the Clarence Brown Theatre, can invoke disciplinary action at any time, including removal from production assignments, probation, and dismissal. Professional standards of conduct are clearly communicated in each MFA program area, and in the department and the theatre through handbooks, production guidelines, and frequent verbal reiteration. The graduate student is responsible to know the standards of conduct and common practices of the department and the theatre.

Behavioral Probation and Dismissal

Unprofessional behavior will be addressed by department administration and faculty on a case-by-case basis. If probation is invoked, a formal letter stating the terms of probation will be made available to the student. Dismissal is accomplished by written notice to the student, with a copy to The Graduate School.

Appeals Procedure

The student handbook, Hilltopics, contains statements concerning UT Knoxville standards of conduct and of all disciplinary regulations and procedures. To access the online version of Hilltopics, go to <http://dos.utk.edu/hilltopics/>. Normally, grievances should be handled at the department level through the students' advisor or the department or program head. Students wishing to appeal a grade or other action of the department should:

1. Meet with the instructor of the course, members of the student's committee and if desired, with the department head.
2. If that meeting is unsatisfactory, the student should make a written request to appeal the grade/action through the Departments Academic and Artistic Standard Committee. The Committee will meet with the student and all faculty involved in the action being appealed. After hearing all sides of the issue, the committee will make a judgment and recommendation for action. The Department Head will consider the final recommendation of action. The Department Head will consider the final recommendation of the committee binding and will take the necessary measures to comply with that recommendation. The student will be notified in writing of the department decision and avenues of appeal.

3. If the student believes due process has been denied by the Department of Theatre, graduate students may further appeal to the Dean of the College, the Dean of the Graduate School, The Graduate Council, and the Chancellor. The by-laws of the university [Article V, section 7] provide that any individual may ultimately appeal to the Board of Trustees through the President. A hard copy of the Appeals Procedures is available in The Office of Graduate Admissions and Records. It can also be viewed electronically on The Graduate School website [see Graduate Council Appeal Procedure, revised on May 5, 1999].

Graduation Requirements

In addition to completing all of the requirements listed for the degree, students must comply with the requirements of The Graduate School and the University before they will be granted a degree. Mostly this consists of paperwork, but it must be submitted properly and on time or THE UNIVERSITY WILL NOT ALLOW YOU TO GRADUATE. The following is a list of The Graduate School and University requirements for graduation and the approximate dates of each. You must check with The Graduate School for the exact dates of each deadline for the specific year in which you intend to graduate. This information can be accessed at The Graduate School web site: <http://gradschool.utk.edu/graduation.shtml>. All of these requirements occur in your third year of residence.

Register for Theatre 599:

You must be registered for three [3] hours of Theatre 599 [Projects in Lieu of Thesis, under the name of your major professor] during the semester in which you intend to graduate.

Application for Admission to Candidacy:

This form must be submitted to The Graduate School near the end of the Fall Semester of your third year of residence. This form lists all the courses that you have taken and intend to take before graduation. The Graduate School checks this form to see that you have met all the requirements for graduation.

Diploma Application:

This form must be submitted to The Graduate School sometime in February of your third year of residence.

Pay Graduation Fee:

This fee must be paid to The Bursar's Office usually about one week after the Diploma Application is submitted.

Order Cap, Gown and Hood:

You must place an order for your cap, gown and hood at the bookstore ring counter usually around the first of April so that you have the proper items for the graduation ceremony.

Schedule your Final Examination for Non-Thesis Students:

This is the form that tells The Graduate School when you will be taking your Final Exam in defense of your Non-Thesis Project. This form must be completed and in The Graduate School sometime in April.

AGAIN, ALL OF THE ABOVE REQUIREMENTS MUST BE COMPLETED PROPERLY AND ON TIME OR YOU WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO GRADUATE.

Please note that all of the dates given above are approximate. You can only find out the exact date of these requirements by checking with The Graduate School at the beginning of your third year of residence. They are all published in a calendar that The Graduate School issues yearly titled: Dates to Remember—Academic year 20__ - __. This calendar is also published each semester in The Graduate School News, available online or in print.

Van service is also provided to those individuals with mobility limitation, whether permanent or temporary. Documentation of the disability within the past 3 years from an attending physician or psychologist is required.

For example, previous years there has been a $10 home and $20 away game ticket price for football games. Student tickets to athletic events cannot be purchased without paying the program & service fee. Parking

<http://web.utk.edu/~ps/>

Parking Services, 2121 Stephenson Drive & 24 University Center

Main Phone: 865-974-6031

Email: ps@utk.edu

24 UC Phone: 865-974-5440

Parking is the subject of more complaints than anything else at the University. Areas available for parking are limited. The problem is that there is just not enough of it. Regular parking on all University lots, streets, parking structures or leased lots will be by parking permit only. Remember that your parking tag is not a guarantee of a space; it is merely a hunting license. If you plan to commute to school you should purchase a parking tag or ride public transportation (KAT). You may purchase a UT parking hang tag in the University Parking office (974-5440), open all year in the basement of the University Center, room 24. The hang tag is good for fall and spring semester only. If you attend summer or evening school you must purchase another tag. No parking instrument will allow you to park in special event parking without paying their fee. You will be towed if you do not vacate a lot being reserved for event parking, even if you have a permit.

To reduce traffic congestion within the campus area, large student parking areas are located on the perimeter of the campus. Free bus service (The T) is provided across campus, in parts of The Fort (Fort Sanders area) and to classes, facilities, and UT housing locations on campus. With the closure of UT apartments on Sutherland Avenue, there are changes in KAT T bus routes. Please reference the KAT website at <http://www.ci.knoxville.tn.us/kat/>. Unlimited off-campus use of KAT busses is only $50 per semester for UT students, faculty and staff with a flash pass from KAT, available at the Central Ticket office in the UC. KAT also operates free trolleys (http://www.cityofknoxville.org/kat/web%20pages/Trolley/Trolley_Map.asp). Smart Trips is a commuter reward initiative for carpooling, bicycling or walking that offers prizes, etc. Visit their section on the Parking services home page if you will be living off-campus.

Some students park in the Ft. Sanders area and walk from there. This would not be recommended if you were returning to your car late at night. There are several blue emergency phones along this path for access to UT Police and T-link on demand (974-4080). T-link on demand is a safety initiative available 6pm-7am via phone request for a free van ride from your location on campus to your vehicle, library or on-campus housing, etc. More information is available at <http://safety.utk.edu/transportation/> as part of the Campus Safety Guide.

After 5:00 p.m., you can park in any unreserved staff lot with your hang-tag, 5pm-3am only. No parking after 3am is allowed in commuter lots or the Aquatic Center without a special permit. Do not park in Handicapped Spaces, or you will be towed. If you park in a restricted parking area you will be ticketed. If you park in the lots without a parking tag you will not only get a ticket for parking there, but you will also be fined for not having your vehicle registered. You can avoid this additional fine by registering your car with Parking Services. This registration is free.

If you get a ticket you must pay it. You will not be allowed to register, graduate, or get a transcript if you do not. If you feel that the ticket is unjust you can appeal it. Appeals must be made to Parking Services on Stephenson Drive. For additional information about the rights and responsibilities of on-campus parking, visit the Parking services website. Campus parking regulations are available at <http://web.utk.edu/~ps0/regulations.php> (enforced 24 hrs/day).
